This is "Florida Anniversary" by Helen Chode

On the pulse of this bright morning
My lips burn with possibility.
My mouth just thicker flesh,
My tongue a slimy fist
Punching up and out,
Searching for understanding
For acceptance, for love!
"Malt-O-Meal's a-ready!"
Mama cries from below,
"And the school bus is a-waitin'!" She wails.
A tear escapes my eye slits
And traces the mesa of my cheek.
Has it already been a year?
Is today my Florida anniversary?
