PERENNIAL

It's often said, in modern society, that a gender-neutral man cannot eat pizza with a utensil. Well I'm here to say Hong Kong PHOOEY to that! The Person is me the place is now and the thing is also the idea which is THIS: PIZZA FORK. That's right! Using the power of both fork AND pizza, I've attached 2 blades - serrated! - to both outside prongs of this lil food rake! And while, YES the blades do cut the corners of your mouth, the pain is negated by the scientific good taste of Za!

Ow! But yum!

Ooh! Got spicy marinara in my torn-up lip corners! While I seek medical attention, why don't you seek a hot n ready poem in the Poetry Nook by the AnaPizzaHutta herself, AnaPizza Ardasauce. Anahita?

ANAHITA

This is "Have I Just Been Sloshing" by Teraign Goose.

The sun breaks through a ruby morning
I'm up before the birds
I shuffle to the kitchen
The only one I've ever known
And in this moment I reach for that well-worn cylinder
Containing the seeds of the earth
The dirt gems

And there they are - the initial chirpings of dawn
The Birds!
Those haughty fellows!

I grind the coff'd seeds and brew them in the early mists of day
I watch the drips collected from water over dust
The juice.

And I think of my life in terms of swallows - both avian and oral

And then those birds
Those confident coworkers of existence

And I realize that they are laughing
At me
And I realize that I've been sloshing
This Entire
Time.
